This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. RULES

ORDERED BY THE COUNCIL

FOR THE GOVERNMENT OF THE LIBRARY

OF THE

SOCIETY OF ANTIQUARIES OF LONDON.

March 17, 1886.

1. The Library shall be open for the use of the Fellows of the Society daily, with the exception of Sundays and the holidays mentioned in Rule 2, from Eleven in the morning until Six in the afternoon, except that on Saturdays it shall be closed at One.

2. The holidays on or during which the Library shall be closed shall be Good Friday, Easter Eve, Easter week, Monday and Tuesday in Whitsun week, Christmas Eve to New Year's Eve inclusive, and the month of September. On Ash Wednesday and Ascension Day, the Library will be open from Two to Six only.

3. Every Fellow of the Society whose annual subscription shall not be more than three months in arrear may borrow out of the Library any number of printed volumes not exceeding four, and may exchange any of the borrowed volumes for others as often as he may please, but so that he shall not have more than four in his possession at any one time.

4. Every application by any Fellow who shall not attend in person for the loan of any book or books shall be in writing and be presented at the Society's apartments by an authorised agent therein named.

5. So much of the title of every book borrowed as will suffice to distinguish it, the name of the borrower, and the time of borrowing it shall be entered in a book to be called the Library Delivery Book, and such entry shall be signed by the borrower or his agent; and the return of books borrowed shall be duly entered in the same book.

6. After the Library Delivery Book shall have been signed as required by Rule 5, the book or books borrowed may either be taken away by the borrower or his agent, or be sent to the borrower in any reasonable and recognized mode which the borrower or his agent shall request; but all costs of the packing and of the transmission and return of the book or books borrowed shall in every case be defrayed by the Fellow who shall have borrowed the same.

7. No book borrowed out of the Library shall be retained for a longer period than one month if the same be applied for in the meanwhile by any other Fellow; nor in any case shall any book be retained for a longer period than six months.

8. Every Fellow who shall borrow any book out of the Library shall be responsible to the Society for its safety and good condition from the time of its leaving the apartments of the Society till it shall be returned by him; and, in case of loss or damage, he shall replace the same or make it good, or, if required by the Council, shall furnish another copy of the entire work of which it may be part.

9. No manuscript, nor any drawing, nor any part of the Society's collections of prints or rubbings shall be lent out of the Library without the authority of the Council, or, during the summer vacation, without the authority of the Library Committee.

10. The Library Committee shall prepare, and may from time to time add to or alter, a List of such works as shall not be lent out of the Library on account of their rarity, value, or peculiar liability to damage, or on account of their being works of reference often needed by Fellows personally using the Library; and a copy of such List for the time being shall be kept in the Library.

11. No book shall be lent out until one month after the acquisition of it for the Library; and books acquired during the summer vacation, if lent out, shall be returned one week at least before the meetings of the Society shall be resumed, in order to be laid before the Society.

12. Persons not being Fellows of the Society may be admitted for a period not exceeding one week to consult printed books and manuscripts not of a private nature in the Society's Library for any special purpose, on being introduced by a Fellow either personally or by letter.

13. No book shall be lent to any person not being a Fellow of the Society without a special order of the Council.

W. H. St. JOHN HOPE, M.A.,
Assistant-Secretary.

Amsterdam, 1638

"This copy is remarkable, from the fine state of the engravings, which are equal to proofs, being sometimes without the engravers' names. It is also curious as being the volume presented to the East Indian Company of Merchants in Amsterdam by the author, whose dedicatory inscription, in his own handwriting, is placed opposite the title-page." (MS. Note by F. W. F.) Seventeen Plates, including a duplicate of the fourth. The Portrait of the Queen is wanting, but the still rarer plate of the Four Burgomasters, by Suyderhoef, is in this copy.

. MARY DE MEDICIS. Blyde Inkomst der allerdoorluchtighste Koninginne Maria de Medicis, t'Amsterdam. Vertaelt uit het Latijn des hooghgeleerden heeren Kaspar von Baerle, fol. . . . . ib. 1639

This is a translation of the preceding work. The Plates are the same as in the Latin copy with the following exceptions. Suyderhoef's fine plate of the four Burgomasters is wanting here; and the Portrait of Marie de Medicis at the head of this copy is not in the Latin Edition.

. CHARLES II. KING OF ENGLAND. Relation en forme de Journal du Voyage et Sejour que le Serenissime et Très-Puissant Prince Charles II., Roy de la Grand' Bretagne, &c., a fait en Hollande, depuis le 25 May jusques au 2 Juin, 1660, fol. . . . . The Hague, 1660 et de diverses Pièces considerables pour l'Histoire. Le tout exactement recueilly par l'ordre de Messieurs de Ville, et imprimée l'an 1662, fol. . . . Paris, 166

Enrichie de plusieurs Figures, des Harangues,

"This volume, once in the Library of the Jesuits in Paris, varies from that ordinarily published. The Portrait is larger, and appears to be a proof impression. The Portrait usually in the book is smaller, representing the King in armour, after Mignard, by P. van Schuppen. Some of the Plates in this volume were printed before the names of the engravers were placed upon them, viz., Pl. vii., Le Paultre sculpsit. Pl. ix., ditto. Pl. xiii., C. Le Brun inv. Le Paultre sculpsit." (MS. Note by F. W. F.) Twenty-three Plates: most of them engraved by Jean Marot.
